

Zurich³⁹ Nyon 15

Match Report by Nyon's vice captain Gareth Jones, son and brother of vice president Peter.

Wayee boyo, our game against the skavvy Zurich Darrens went as planned and resulted in a narrow defeat for the boyos from the valleys. Nyon kicked off and took a deserved 3-0 lead after some raz build up play. Zurich got a lucky penalty to make it 3-3.

The far superior Nyon went 10-3 up through Wosname with a wicked assist from yours truly. Nyon deliberately gave Zurich 3 tries to lull them into a false sense of security for the play-offs. 2 tries came from their big No 8, the other from their Gold haired No 9 who could not help but take advantage of our exposed blindside. I think I have seen him back in Llandewi Breffi with my mate Daffyd.

Since its creation in 1976, Paléo Festival has become the biggest open-air music event in Switzerland. Made possible by the work of Nyon Rugby club, it plays host each year, over a period of six days and on six stages, to 120 concerts in front of audiences totalling more than 220,000. The Festival line-up represents a balance between established stars and new talent and includes rock, French chanson, world music, reggae, hip hop, classical music and street theatre. Over 100 food and craft stalls, 4 restaurants, a day nursery, a children's play area and a free campsite are made available to festival goers. The festival runs from 24th to 29th July.

Daffyd Thomas and Gareth are both from Llandewi

Even though the boys from Zurich were wanged out by the 50th minute we gave them 3 more tries. Again, 2 more to the rocko No 8 and one to their No 15. We scored a tres funk try just to make sure we can do it when we want.

Our game plan looked sorted until our reserve second row saved a certain try by outpacing their No 9 and taking him from behind just 10 cm from our try line. It meant we had to all come back 60 meters for the scrum, wasting precious energy we were saving for the play-offs. One suspects the Zurich No 9 did it deliberately.

Points

3 points - Tati yet again, I know it's now very boring but he had another awesome game

2 points - Ramiro - good game - has finally seen the error of his ways and no longer takes it alone up the blindside

2 points - Gregoire see above

1 point - Fraser - new kid on the block, talks and supports the youngsters at the back.

Jaffa Cake - Cedric Unholz, the Goldie Wilson of Zurich rugby (but with no pace).
